

Mrs. Stevens Is Honored

Miss Alice Olson assisted by her sister, Mrs. Frank Sclarotta entertained with a post-nuptial shower for Mrs. Stacy Stevens, the former Janet Robinson, at the Sclarotta home, 1014 Sierra Pl.

Upon her arrival, the bride was presented with a white carnation corsage.

Games were played with prizes going to Misses Loretta Robinson, Mickey Van Deventer, and Cherie Tyler. After opening her gifts, the honoree cut a prettily decorated cake at a tea table centered with a bouquet of pink and white flowers topped with a pink nylon net parasol.

Cake, punch and coffee were served to Mrs. John Fedor.

BENEFIT PARTY

Torrance chapter Women of the Moose will hold a gift and gadget show at the hall Wednesday June 15 at 8 p.m. Treasurer Marguerite Baudin and recorder Delores Olson will be hostesses. Proceeds will go to the Moosehaven room fund.

Activities Close Year At Nursery

Celebrating the next to the last week of school, children of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School enjoyed two field trips Wednesday. The older group toured the Inglewood Farms Dairy and the young group visited the Palos Verdes bird farm. They then returned to the home of Barbie Laverty, 804 Cranbrook, where they were served cookies.

Executive board meeting was held June 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Crowley, 22803 Kathryn Ave.

This evening, June 13, the last Parent Education meeting for the year will be held. Parents will meet at 7 p.m. for pot luck supper and motion picture "Impressionable Years." This will be followed by a business meeting and election of officers for the fall semester with Mrs. Don West presiding.

Graduation exercises will be held Thursday morning, June 16, for all children entering kindergarten in the fall. A picnic will follow.

Monday, June 27 at 7:30 p.m. a joint meeting of the old and new executive boards will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. McTea 810 Madrid Ave.

Lioness Club

Members of the Lioness Club will gather for a pot luck supper, June 21, at 7:30 in the patio at the home of Mrs. A. B. McTea 810 Madrid Ave.

At their last business meeting held June 7, in the Rolling Hills home of Mrs. Don Moshos, the group pledged support of the Lions Community Fair candidate queen, Miss Virginia Gots. At this meeting, Mrs. McTea conducted her last business session as president.

Plan Cradle Roll Service

June meeting of the Women's Christian Service Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection will feature a candle-lighting cradle roll service with presentation of cradle roll certificates by Mrs. Kenneth Tucker, cradle roll chairman of the guild.

This will mark the first of what is to be an annual program of the guild, that of presenting to mothers of young children a certificate to indicate that the child's name has been entered on the cradle roll of the church and a donation in his name has been made to a mission field of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the church, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., tomorrow evening. This is the last meeting of the Women's Christian Guild until September.

Devotions and Bible study are to be given by Mrs. L. Marshall. Mrs. George Birch will conduct the worship offering.

Refreshment hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Lyle Heck, T. C. Flatland, Lillian Brink, James McClune and Howard Anderson. Special music will be furnished by an ensemble directed by Mrs. Alvin Clark.

Dance Studio Marks 11th Year Here

Three Arts Dance Studio, 2252 West Carson St., will celebrate its 11th year in Torrance by presenting a dance revue at the Torrance Civic auditorium Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23. An effective "Round the World" theme will be used in both shows. The two cities whose romance will be exploited the first evening are "New Orleans" and "Rio." The second performance will be built around "Tokyo" and "Paris." Beautiful costumes are being worked out for the performance. Curtain time both evenings will be at 7:30.

Tickets may be purchased from any of the Three Arts Studio students or at the box office at the civic auditorium.

Maple Harvest
All maples yield a sweet sap, but only the sugar maple and the black maple are important to syrup producers.

Nance-Davis Nuptials Are Solemnized At Nativity

Before the altar banked with bouquets of white stock and gladioli, Miss Shirley Nance became the bride of Phillip Davis at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass, Saturday morning in the Nativity Catholic Church.

The Rev. P. J. McGuinness read the double ring ceremony and mass before 150 relatives and friends.

Coming to the altar on the arm of her father, Raymond Davis, of 414 Flat St., the bride was lovely in a white satin gown fashioned with a net over skirt. A boat neckline and long pointed sleeves styled the bodice. Her finger tip will fell from a band of pearls and she carried white carnations, centered with orchids.

Mrs. Robert Nance, matron of honor, in aqua taffeta with full net skirt and matching veiled hat, carried carnations in the shades of pink, yellow and blue.

Bridesmaids wearing identical styled gowns in peach and blue were Mrs. Walter Daly and Miss Carolyn Young. Mrs. Daly in peach, carried blue carnations and Miss Young in blue, carried pink carnations. Both wore matching hats trimmed with a short veil. Little Janie Nance, niece of the bride, wearing pink nylon was the flower girl.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Davis of Los Angeles, chose Alfred Aliverti to attend him as best man. Ushers were Robert Nance and Gilbert Davis.

Among the guests attending the reception which followed in the church hall were the bride's mother and grandparents from Pontiac, Ill., Mrs. Genevieve Nance; Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan.

After the couple return from a honeymoon in northern California, they will reside in North Hollywood. The bride is a graduate of Pontiac, Ill. high school. The bridegroom is a graduate of both Loyola high and college.

Urban Trends
About one million acres of land are converted each year in the United States to residential, commercial or industrial purposes, diminishing potential farms.

Delta Gamma To Meet at Regan Home

Newly-organized South Bay Alumnae chapter of Delta Gamma will meet tomorrow evening June 14, at 8 p.m. at the Rolling Hills home of Mrs. Frank T. Regan at 2 Eucalyptus Lane. All Delta Gammas of the South Bay are invited to attend.

Election of officers for the coming year will take place with Mrs. J. U. Wilson as chairman of the organizing committee.

The South Bay area includes Torrance, El Segundo, Playa Del Rey, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa, Redondo, Rolling Hills, Hollywood Riviera, Palos Verdes, Portuguese Bend and San Pedro.

Philanthropic project for the Delta Gammas is aid to the blind and currently the chapter is working on wash cloths for the nursery school for the visually handicapped. This institution not only aids blind babies but teaches their parents proper care.

The nursery school was founded by the Delta Gamma Fraternity. Members attending tomorrow's meeting are asked to bring terry cloth for the wash cloths.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Regan will be Mrs. Charles T. Aylesbury and Mrs. Benjamin Kazarian Jr.

Scout Trails

Circus Days was the theme of the meeting of Cub Pack 732C at the Torrance Elementary school auditorium, May 20. Den 7 opened the meeting and community singing was led by Mrs. Violet Irvine. Circus skills were performed by the Webelos, Den 5, 7, and 8. Presentation of the Pack charter and individual committee cards was made by Bill Walton, neighborhood commissioner. It was also announced that Walton had been appointed assistant area commissioner in North Torrance.

The following awards were made: Bobcats, Rodney Clarke, John Charles Thompson, Denny Moore, and Jerry M. Hughes; Dale Wilson, wolf badge, gold arrow; Terry O'Brien, Bear badge, gold and silver arrow; Tommy Cooper, silver arrow; Den 2, Mrs. Dorothea Scirica, one year pin; Leslie Stanton, bear badge, gold arrow; Thomas Denman Jr., denner stripe; and Donald Coli, bear badge.
